Oregon Urges Decision On School Law

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.-The state of Oregon, through ts attorney-general, Isaac Van Winkle, today petitioned the United States supreme court for an early decision on the validity of the Oregon law requiring children that state to attend the public schools and prohibit those within specified ages from attending private schools.

The law would go into effect next September if de-clared valid and time is required, the brief said, to make provision for its enforcement and provide for increased number of pupils at the public schools.

READY RESPONSE TO RADIO FUND APPEAL

WEATHER: Fair Friday

Liberal Offers of Cooperation Coming In and Marked Increase In Total of Subscriptions; Hurry! End Nears!

Glendalians are responding nobly to the appeal for funds to secure radio receiving sets for each of the four fire stations in Glendale, and the subscriptions received by The Glendale Evening News continue to grow. One set has been installed, more than enough money received for the second set, and two more to raise funds for.

Co-operation in the raising of the fund is seen throughout Glendale, but it remained for William Bode, manager of the Glendale sey really intends to quit fighting boulevard, to express his spirit of

Two-Year-Old Glendale Miss Badly Hurt In 40-Foot Drop Into Cesspool

Straying too near the edge of an open cesspool being dug near her home at 636 East Palmer avenue, Marie Flanders, 2 years old, fell into the pit yesterday afternoon, dropping forty feet to the bottom. As the child landed in her fall her abdomen was torn from side to side on the edge of a galvanized form in the bottom of the pit. Workmen quickly brought the child to the surface, while her mother, Mrs. George F. Flanders and her aunt, Mrs. Chance Bachellor, looked on. She was rushed to the Windsor hospital, where an operation involving major surgery was performed by Dr. Edward Swift in an effort to save her life. Hospital attendants held out scant hope of the child's recovery today. Her condition was virtually unchanged over last night, it was stated.

According to Chance Bachellor, uncle of little Marie, who reported to the police, the child and a playmate were playing at a tea party on the lawn at 636 East Palmer avenue. Thinking she saw her dog, which had strayed away some time during the morning, Marie rushed to the edge of the open cesspool. As she peered in, she lost her balance and fell. Workmen who are digging the long row of cesspools in the parking along Palmer avenue were eating their lunches at the time of the tragedy, Mr. Bachellor said. and the open holes were, for the time, left unguarded.

Upon hearing the first shriek of terror from the little girl laborers rushed to the scene and one of their number was lowered by means of the windlass into the pit. The men raised the worker with the child back to the sur-

First of Friday Night Events To Be Staged After Curtain Falls

Tonight will mark the first of Friday night after-theatre dances to be given under the auspices of the Dobinson Players at the ballroom in the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse adjoining the theatre.

Following the descent of the final curtain in "Love Laughs." those who wish to do so will be privileged to enter the ballroom and dance. There will be an additional charge of twenty-five cents per person.

A five-piece syncopated orchestra has been procured and the very latest in jazz selections and effects is promised. A week from Friday night there will be another dance, and two weeks away is the special Valentine party, which will include supper, dance and theatre.

Florence Dobinson announces there has been a heavy advance seat sale for the first few nights "Wedding Bells," the play which follows "Love Laughs," and that every seat in the theatre has been sold out for the opening per formance next Monday night.

HARRIS and WHITE

Glendale's Leading Tailors!!

GENTLEMEN-No need of going into details relative to the reputation for integrity and reliability of Harris and White, Glendale's leading tailors, as we have already moved from our old location, which was at 107 W. Broadway, to our present new location. We deem it a pleasure in announcing the commencement of our grand opening sale in order to more fully celebrate the occasion, and we wish to impress upon the minds of the intelligent public of this community that we have taken the utmost pains and used the greatest precaution in the selection of this magnificent stock of high grade foreign and American fabrics, which are of the finest quality and textures and guaranteed to be the finest wool obtainable, in order to meet the critical requirements and imperative demands of the intelligent men of Glendale, whose demands are always quality-giving; price no consideration. We are going to the utmost extremes during this grand opening sale in order to get ourselves started on a solid working basis in our new location. This grade of material will instantly appeal to the class of men whose demands must be complied with in order to retain their confidence and future consideration, and who thoroughly realize the value of high-grade fabrics and appreciate the standard of tailoring that all men who have always worn good clothes are fully familiar with; the standard of tailoring that instantly denotes pride, selfrespect, refinement, culture and good breeding; the standard of tailoring that tends to give one that dignified appearance which materially adds to one's prestige in all social and commercial affairs; the standard of tailoring that means everything that the word tailoring implies; as our object and ambition is to make this institution the leading tailoring institution in the city of Glendale. But as an incentive during our grand opening sale we are going to place this magnificent stock of high-grade foreign and American fabrics at the disposal of the public at a tremendous sacrifice and at a price that will be a startling revelation in the annals of high-class tailoring in this community.

We are here to stay, and by that statement we mean that nothing but the highest grade of material only will always be carried by us, and the toleration of an inferior grade of tailoring, which is detestable, will under no circumstances be ever tolerated in this institution for an instant. That will be the predominating factor and fixed policy of this institution, which we are doubly certain will eventually spell success.

A Guaranteed $65.00 Suit-To-Order

Open Evenings During Sale Only

During Sale Only FOR . . .

Come and Take Your Choice—Nothing Held in Reserve During Sale

GENTLEMEN-As an incentive in order to get ourselves started for the commencement of operations in our new location, this magnificent stock of foreign and American fabrics will be placed on sale for one week only at a price that will be within the reach of everyone with only a modest income. Every suit in this establishment will be sacrificed, regardless of the original cost or selling price of the suit you may happen to take a fancy to and select. Several hundred different styles to select from, which include the latest weaves, shades and designs for the coming season, shipped to us direct from Chicago and New York. As this is an American institution, based on American ideals and principles, and conducted by Americans throughout, the word of American gentlemen is behind this forthcoming statement. Every gentleman availing himself of our grand opening sale offer will receive one of the most handsomely designed and strictly HAND CUSTOM TAILORED SUITS, made to your individual measure, out of these high grade fabrics, during sale only, for $42.50 that will be the exact equivalent in STYLE, QUALITY AND WORKMANSHIP to an actual $65.00 suit made by the most reputable tailoring firms in the country. Your garments will be lined with genuine French Venetian silk, pure wool serge, or alpaca lining and trimmed with imported Belgian hair cloth, and pure Irish linen canvas, which is the best that money can purchase. The installation of the highest standard of tailoring that the skilled ingenuity of expert tailoring mechanics is capable of producing will be installed in every garment, as though the original selling price of $65.00 had been paid. Under no circumstances will we deviate in the slightest degree from the standard of tailoring that we are certain will win the confidence of the intelligent men of this community. Every suit ordered during this grand opening sale will be made up as a strictly sample suit for advertising purposes and at the absolute cost of production, as we are forfeiting our margin entirely during this sale.

Several Hundred Different Patterns To Select From

Special Statement by Mr. Harris:—

Being fully aware of the sensitive nature, which is the natural heritage of all American gentlemen whose finer sensibilities and gentlemanly instincts will not allow the embarrassing of others or themselves over trivial matters, even though the failure to lodge a protest which would be entirely justified on their part, would mean a loss to them through no fault of their own, I sincerely wish to impress upon the minds of the intelligent men of this community that I am more than desirous of being fair in every way possible, and under no circumstances do I wish to cause a loss to anyone through any fault of mine. I wish to assure those deeming us worthy of their consideration that if you are dissatisfied in any way with the suit you have ordered, upon its completion, I respectfully request that you step over to our bookkeeper, who has explicitinstructions to ask no questions, state your name and the amount due you when presenting your receipt, and same will be immediately refunded you without a question being asked. But if still retaining your confidence, we will deem it a pleasure, if given the opportunity, of remeasuring you for an entire new suit, if agreeable to you. We are both fully willing and amply capable of sustaining any loss that may accrue through any fault of ours, as a loss of that kind is, in our opinion, a mere trifle and absolutely nothing when compared to your friendship and valuable consideration. Integrity and reliability have always been our traits and principles, which we have always strictly adhered to during the years of our commercial career, and those traits and principles will always predominate in this institution, which is based on American ideals and principles and conducted by Americans throughout.

Sale Starts Tomorrow—Saturday, January 31st Doors Open 8 a. m. sharp. This Sale will close next Saturday evening.

PLEASURE IN BOOKS

The tendency of this age is to seek out new ways of entertaining and amusing ourselves, and the harder we strive to find new pleasures the more certain we are to defeat our own purpose, for too much amusement breeds ennui. If we preserved a proper balance in the time allotted to work and play, self improvement and rest, we should enter into our sports with more zest and take more pleasure in our hours of recreation.

When all is said and done, there is no pleasure like that to be found n a good book. But the motor car, the moving picture and the radio are all but banishing this form of entertainment from modern life. To be sure, the cross-word puzzle is making a great many of us acquainted with the dictionary, but that is not going far enough.

When we read, it is all too often the lightest of modern fiction, for there are so many distractions it seems impossible to give our undivided attention to any subject for any length of time. Even the novel, because of its length, has lost some of its old time popularity. It is so much easier and more satisfactory when we have a little time for reading to pick up a magazine and read a short story or article.

There is both pleasure and profit in a good book. Those who care only for fiction or for no reading at all can easily acquire a taste for-substantial mental food. History, biography, travel and the best of the classics of all lands and all times are at our disposal in the public libraries. Printers' ink has become so common that we do not prize it as they did in the days when books and papers were rare and expensive. Joseph Addison says of reading, "Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body. As by the one health is preserved, strengthened and invigorated; by the other virtue (which is the health of the mind) is kept alive, cherished and confirmed."

Reading good books demands thought and encourages thought. And thought leads to introspection that is profitable to the individual.

UP-STATE AIR ROUTE

The establishment of an air passenger service between Los Angeles and San Francisco early in February is another long step forward in aeronautics in this country. While our airmen have made outstanding records in a number of instances, we are said to be behind other countries in the development and use of the airplane. Air service across the English channel between France and England has been maintained for a number of years.

The contemplated service between the two principal cities of Californa will be significant in a number of ways. Bringing the two towns closer together will have a tendency to eliminate some of the animosity and jealousy that have existed between north and the south. It will facilitate business in both cities by shortening the time between them to five hours.

Four machines of the eight-passenger tri-plane type will be operated daily. One will leave Los Angeles at 8 a. m. and another at noon and planes will leave San Francisco at the same hours, making stops at Bakersfield, Fresno and Modesto. Promoters of the scheme say the fare will be between $30 and $40.

COURTESY TO PATRONS

When employes of business concerns and public utility corporations treat patrons as though they were inferiors seeking favors of superiors they do not impress the public with their importance as they seem to suppose, so much as they prove by their manner that they have not learned the first requirement of business and that they have been reared in an atmosphere where courtesy was absent.

Many people are in every way so far above those who treat them with discourtesy that they do not give incidents of this kind a thought. Other people are extremely sensitive and hesitate to ask for information or service from those who are paid to serve them.

In any business it is the buying public that is to be considered and it behooves public service employes to treat patrons with common courtesy, at least. Several of the big corporations have seen the importance of this and are requiring their em- and Uranus are adverse. ployes to be courteous under all circumstances and are adopting such slogans as "The patron is always right."

THE LATEST CREATION FROM PARIS!

By DR. FRANK CRANE

Samuel Gompers was the president of the American Federation of Labor.

He recently died, and his death was the occasion of a great display of public appreciation. He was born in England in 1850. He was a cigar maker by trade, and one of the founders of the American Federation of Labor in 1886. For the thirty-eighth time he had just been elected to its presidency at the convention held at El Paso, Texas. The rise of this English Jewish boy to a position of great prominence in the world is significant apart from whether one believes in his ideas or make such a rise and achieve the commanding position he occupied in the last forty-three years He was opposed to strikes, and avoided them whenever he could do so wisely. He was a conservative in his unbending adherence to trade unionism pure and simple. He was usually understood as being opposed to all sorts of radicalism.

It was largely through his efforts that the American Federation of Labor has replaced the Knights of Labor, which now is only a memory. He succeeded in getting many laws passed by Congress and state legislatures for the betterment of labor conditions. He held to the very last his authority over his organization. He had no idea as to what would be the permanent settlement of the labor question. He accepted things as he found them-that there was an eternal conflict between capital and labor, and he was on the side of the laboring man. Once, when Morrison, his lieutenant was asked:

"What are you going to do with all this growing power of organized labor? To what ultimate end are you working?" he replied: "God only knows; I don't.' Gompers never made any attempt to lead men any further than they could see. He never lost himself in economic speculation. He was essentially a craftsman, for he took things as he found No one but a man who is really great could them and worked for immediate results. such a rise and achieve the commanding All his career he opposed Communications.

He also opposed the institution of labor banks and the ownership of productive enterprises by labor. He was opposed to prohibition, and worked actually against the adoption of the Volstead law.

On the whole, he was a sane, conservative and constructive labor leader, and his place will be a very hard one to fill.

It is significant that the man who thus united behind himself the majority of the labor forces was not a native American. He was an Englishman and a Jew.

Advice By CLARK KINNARD

There is a class of people. whenever they see any good to be done, or evil to be remedied, would willingly instigate the government to undertake the business; while there is another class that prefers to bear almost any amount of social evil, rather than add one to the departments of human interests amenable to governmental control. And men range themselves on one or the other side in any particular case, according to this general direction of their sentiments; or according to the degree of interest which they feel in the particular thing which it is proposed that the government should do; or according to the belief they entertain that the government would, or would not, do it in the manner they prefer. But they very rarely do so on account of any opinion to which they consistently adhere, as to what things are fit to be done by the government, whether it be liquor prohibition, or child labor regulation, or control of navigable rivers.
In consequence of this absence of rule or principle, it is apparent that one side is at present as often wrong as the other; and the interference of government is, with about equal frequency, im-

Joins Board

EARL S. PATTERSON, attorney, who has been chosen a director of the Gibraltar Finance corporation.

Another popular Glendalian has been chosen to serve as a member of the board of directors of the Gibraltar Finance corporation, 218 South Brand boulevard. In the selection of Attorney Earl S. Patterson to fill this responsible position, those who are guiding the destinies of this concern have shown good judgment and unusual foresight. They have secured for their concern an attorney who is most capable along the lines of real estate and corporation law.

In his capacity as a member of the board of directors of this concern, and also counsel for the corporation, Mr. Patterson not only strengthens the board in a business way, but also brings a wealth of legal knowledge that will doubtless be of untold value in the operation of the corpora-

Mr. Patterson has lived in Glendale since 1913. For the past five years he has been an officer of the local Elks lodge, and at the present time he is exalted ruler of this organization. He is a member of the following organiza-tions: Elks lodge, Hollywood Country club, American Legion, Arnama club, Society Sons of the American Revolution and Trojan

Mr. Patterson was born in 1892, in Collingswood, N. J. He attended Mercersburg, Pa., academy, one of the three largest preparatory schools in the United States. He also attended Temple 1915 he was graduated from the law school of the University of Southern California.

In 1915 Mr. Patterson opened a law office in Los Angeles. At the declaration of the war against Germany he joined the army and was an officer in the artillery and aviation divisions. On his return from the army he joined with Mr. Moote in the present law office of Moote & Patterson, 515-19 H. W. Hellman building, Los Angeles. This firm specializes in corporation and real estate law, representing some of the largest real estate firms of Los Angeles. He is thoroughly conversant with real estate and corporation laws of California.

Patterson's experience. both in business and legal circles, will certainly serve him well in his work as a director of the Gibraltar Finance corporation.

MUSIC CLUB WILL

Charter Night Celebration Next Tuesday With Special Program

Charter night will be celebrated next Tuesday night by members of Glendale Music club, meeting the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse for a program by Miss Gertrude Cleophas, pianist, and Maurice Lavove, baritone, accompanied by Mrs. Guy Bush. The program will be followed by a reception.

The club was organized February 1921 with fifteen members, and Mrs. Mattison Boyd Jones, the founder, still serves as president. Recalling the historical background of the club it is noted that on the same night the or-ganization chartered, it was federated with the state and national bodies. As the time has passed great development has come about, until today departments of the club provide expression and cultural opportunities for both old and young. DR. OTEY SAYS

Every Fat man is a Dying

Accumulation of fat in undue quantities in the human body is a pathologic condition due to imperfect chemical action of assimilation and elimination.

To attempt to correct such faulty condition by drugs, starvation, or other unnatural means, whether chemical, mechanical, calisthenics, dietetics or what not, is ridiculous and would be ludicrous if it were not so pathetic.

If you have faulty metabolism in the form of obesity, have your osteopath search out and correct the cause.

Answer: Voters who were registered in 1925 prior to January 17, 1925, and voters registered in before 250 women of Glendale, 1924, who have not moved since registering, are qualified to vote in the coming election.

III. Voting 4. Question: During what hours are the polls open? Answer: From 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. under the state law. 5. Question: Where are the polling places?

Answer: Within the city of Glendale, including Casa Verdugo,

Precinct No. 1-Glendale Intermediate school. Precinct No. 2—Harvard school. Precinct No. 3—Broadway High

Precinct No. 4-Columbus Ave-

Precinct No. 5-Central Avenue school. Precinct No. 6-Grand View

Precinct No. 7-2715 Hermosita drive, and at the respective grammar schools in La Crescenta, Tujunga and Sunland.

Note-The boundary lines of the areas comprising each of the above precincts will be published in the local newspapers.

6. Question: Are the polling places the same as in a regular municipal election? Answer: No. Under the school law precincts may be consolidated and different polling places used.

7. Question: Is a majority vote enough to carry a school bond Answer: No. Two-thirds of all the votes cast must be in favor of the bonds. In other words, for every vote cast against the bonds there must be two in favor. 8. Question: Are the elementary and high school bonds voted on the same ballot?

Answer: No. Each voter receives two ballots-one elementary and one high school. Each ballot must be voted upon. (To be continued)

Former Service Men Put Up Game Battle But Feel Lack of Practice

By A. S. HALL Of The Evening News Staff.

Fighting an uphill battle but never weakening from the start final whistle, the Legion casaba tossers lost their initial game in the City league last night the Methodist Episcopal church, 29 to 22. It was the third game of the season for the churchmen, and better teamwork triumphed.

The game was played at the Harvard High school gymnasium and brought to a close the second week of the league schedule. The standing at the end of the second week shows Huli Trucks and Radios tied for first place, the M. E. Church in second spot, Calla Lily crew in third position, and Standard Oils, Legion and Christian church tied for cellar position.

The Legion started out strong last night, Liggett, right forward, getting two baskets early in the period. Despite the efforts of the churchmen, they were held scoreless until a foul was called on Powell, Legion center. Weise, center for the churchmen, made the free throw. Walker, left guard for the Legion, was detected hold-ing and Weise made another free throw. Whitney, left forward for the churchmen, caught the rebound on the second free throw and scored a basket, tying the score just before the quarter

Fol- Hur" was over in Rome a few lowing is a list of consuls who months back. Both "ups in the air" were caused by temperament

> All of which recalls some temperamental breaks in the "fillums" which have caused considerable trouble to both producer and star.

It's not so many years back that Theda Bara, the original screen vamp, was vamping out "Cleopatras" for William Fox. Theda "got a reputation" and with it all a bad case of temperament.

And to prove how crazy-likea-fox William Fox is when it comes to dealing with these temperamental stars whom he has "made," William put one over on Theda. He did it thusly: Theda's temperament got so

Out of a clear sky, one New York day, Edwards was handed a working script of "Kathleen Mayourneen," in which Theda was to take the title role. Any-will see the joke right away. No explanations are necessary. "Kathleen Mavourneen" was finished, and Fox pulled another fast one on Theda. He put the picture into one of New York's legitimate theatres for a "run."

As Fox expected, no policemen were necessary to keep the line to the right at the box office. Top ator and "Annie Oakleys" were virtually the only customers. Fox

That finished Theda Bara, her temperament and everything else pertaining to her popularity as a screen star. Theda dropped out of sight for a year or more, to bob up of a sudden in a play Al Woods produced. The play was a big flop. Theda hasn't been heard from since. That was at least five years ago.

Mme. Olga Petrova suffered a like fate. Remember when Mme. Olga was vamping over the silver sheet? Maybe you don't, but we'll wager every director who ever held a megaphone over her will remember her to the day of his death. Olga didn't last long.

Mme. Nazimova is another. And Madame is a great actress-probably as fine an actress as ever faced a camera. But - temperament virtually drove her from the studio. No one could work with her and handle the megaphone. She must have her own way. The old Metro company stood for her temperament a long timefinally threw up its hands in despair. Today Madame is virtually forgotten on the screen.

Pola Negri tried that little flare of temperament upon her arrival here from Germany, but soon caged it up when she found Americans weren't as "soft" as she figured. The box office receipts take a lot of temperament out of a lot of 'em.

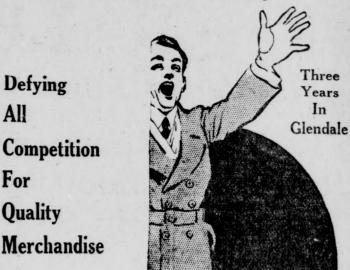

We have watched Mae Murray work under direction of George Fitzmaurice and her husband, Bob Leonard. Mae then was "cabareting" in the Long Island studio of Famous Players in New York. We've been wondering since (and that's four years ago) how she gets away with it.

Von Stroheim's disposition wouldn't exactly be classed as minus temperament, but-here's the difference: Von Stroheim is
